From the East

Greetings Brethren,

We are living in very unusual and difficult times. The news is full of information about the COVID-19 Virus, much of which changes (it seems) every hour or two. The daily routine of life, like grocery shopping, trips to the doctor, or enjoying a meal out with friends, has been completely disrupted. I think we are all looking for a port out of this storm. It is for this reason that I am writing to you.

As Masons we took a very serious pledge - to care for one another, our orphans and our widows. As Master of Hanford Lodge No. 279, I want to ensure we fulfill that commitment. Should you want for anything, regardless how insignificant you think it might be, please share your need. If you need a ride, want someone to handle your grocery shopping, need your yard tended to, or just want someone with which to talk, please call me. We are, regardless of everything going on around us, here for one another!

I look forward to hearing from you.

Fraternally,
Matthew Dawson
Worshipful Master
